

FAQ – Made-in-US.com

1. What is Made-in-US.com?

Made-in-US.com is a marketplace that connects national and international buyers with sellers of authentic American vehicles. We help buyers find unique vehicles in the United States and assist with the purchase process.

2. What types of vehicles can I find on Made-in-US.com?

You can find classic cars, collector vehicles, trucks, SUVs, and other vehicles located in the United States.

3. Does Made-in-US.com sell the vehicles directly?

No. Made-in-US.com is a marketplace. We connect buyers with sellers and assist throughout the process, including negotiation, logistics, and export.

4. How does the buying process work?

Once you find a vehicle you like, contact us through the platform. We will review the vehicle, communicate with the seller, negotiate if possible, and guide you through the purchase and shipping process.

5. Do you help negotiate the price?

Yes. When is possible, we negotiate directly with the seller to obtain the best possible price for the buyer, dans ce cas on reverse au client 20 % de la négociation et le reste on le garde pour le travail effectué et pour faire tourner notre plateforme

6. Do you organize vehicle export and shipping?

Yes. We can assist with logistics, including transportation within the U.S. and international shipping.

7. Can international buyers purchase vehicles?

Yes. Made-in-US.com is designed for national and international buyers looking to purchase vehicles located in the United States.

8. Are the vehicles inspected?

When possible, we can help verify the condition of the vehicle and provide information from the seller. Additional inspections can also be arranged.

9. How do I contact the seller?

Buyers communicate through Made-in-US.com. We coordinate with the seller to ensure a smooth and secure transaction.

10. Why buy a vehicle from the United States?

The United States offers a large selection of classic and collectible vehicles, often with better availability and competitive prices compared to other markets.

11. Is Made-in-US.com the seller of the vehicles?

No. Made-in-US.com is a marketplace that connects buyers with independent vehicle sellers.

We do not own the vehicles listed on the platform and we are not the legal seller.

12. How does the payment process work?

Made-in-US.com acts as a secure escrow service for transactions.

The buyer sends the payment to our company, which holds the funds during the transaction.

Once the purchase is confirmed, we release the payment to the seller.

Our escrow and transaction service fee is $350.

13. Are you responsible for the vehicle's condition?

No. Vehicles are sold directly by the seller.

Made-in-US.com does not guarantee the mechanical condition, history, or authenticity of the vehicle. Buyers are encouraged to request inspections before completing a purchase.

14. Do you organize shipping and export? Yes, we can assist buyers with transportation, export documentation, and international shipping.

However, shipping services are provided by third-party transport companies, and Made-in-US.com is not responsible for delays, damage, or issues during transport.

15. Can I inspect the vehicle before buying?

Yes. Buyers are strongly encouraged to inspect the vehicle in person or through a third-party inspection service before completing the purchase.

16. Are you responsible for the vehicle if you receive the payment?

No. Made-in-US.com acts as an escrow service and marketplace, meaning we secure the payment between the buyer and the seller. We temporarily hold the funds to ensure the transaction is completed properly. Once the terms of the sale are confirmed, the payment is released to the seller.

Made-in-US.com does not own the vehicles and is not legally responsible for the vehicle itself, its condition, or any issues after the sale. The vehicle remains the responsibility of the seller and the buyer.

However, we assist buyers by communicating with the seller, helping with negotiation, and organizing logistics when needed to ensure a smooth transaction.

17. Are you responsible for the vehicle's condition?

No. Vehicles are sold directly by the seller. Made-in-US.com does not guarantee the mechanical condition, history, or authenticity of the vehicle. Buyers are encouraged to request inspections before completing a purchase.